

DO YOU KNOW...?

That life is not always the way you think it is, though everything might be rosy today but don't forget that tomorrow may be full of UPs and DOWNs.

Then how will you survive?

Hmm! are you saying it is a lie? Yes, it might look like a mirage or illusion. But if it were to be, you will not be struggling and fighting for the best or riches all over the places.
Don't forget that in the time of Noah the people were also been told the same thing but they were not listening and even saying that he was lying and they were busy celebrating but at the right time as the LORD had said through Noah it all came to fulfilment.
My beloved Brother/Sister, I want you to know this fact, there is a friend, who is ready to guide, lead, mentor, and show you the real way to follow so you can be saved and be acceptable before the Father.
This friend is knocking at the door of your life and waiting may be you will open the door of your for to enter, His name is JESUS!
Tomorrow may be too late as you cannot Escape the responsibility of tomorrow by evading it today...

ACCEPT JESUS TODAY, TOMORROW MAY BE TOO LATE!
